

Look! Is this situation safe or dangerous?

Sam gets a private message from John Doe. He doesn't know John Doe, but he gives him his phone number!

Look! Is this situation safe or dangerous?

Sam gets a private message from John Doe. He doesn't know John Doe, but he gives him his phone number!

This situation is dangerous.

Look! Is this situation safe or dangerous?

Rose gets a private message from John Doe. She doesn't know John Doe, so she doesn't answer him. She tells her teacher.

Look! Is this situation safe or dangerous?

Rose gets a private message from John Doe. She doesn't know John Doe, so she doesn't answer him. She tells her teacher.

This situation is safe.

Discuss! Are these situations safe or dangerous?

Kate usually shares her password with her classmates.
They can access her profile.

Discuss! Are these situations safe or dangerous?

Matthew takes photos of his classmates and uploads them to his online English course.

Discuss! Are these situations safe or dangerous?

Nick uses an avatar for his profile picture, and he doesn't share personal information.

Let's watch a video together!

True, False or Doesn't Say?

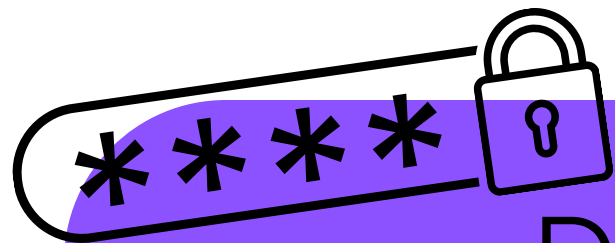

- 1 Grace sends her teacher private messages.
- 2 Sam doesn't know John Doe.
- 3 John Doe lives in the UK.
- 4 Holly has a real photo in her online profile.

True, False or Doesn't Say?

- 5 Kate covers his brother's face on the photo.
- 6 Rose tells the teacher about her friend's comment.
- 7 David gets a mean message on social media..
- 8 We tell adults if we don't feel safe.

Let's complete!

Don't share _____ online.

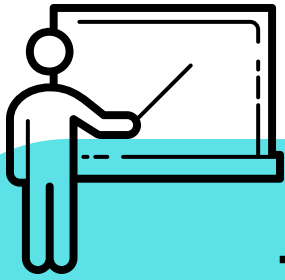

Don't share your _____. It's personal!

Don't _____ real pictures online, use avatars!

Let's complete!

Tell your _____ when you feel unhappy.

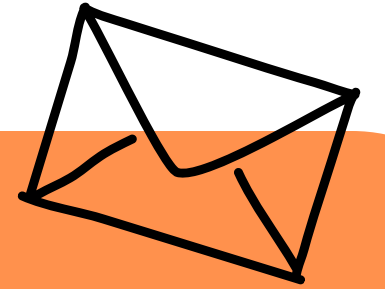

Be _____ to your friends.

_____ before you post online!

Let's complete!

Don't send _____.

Write _____ in forums!

Don't _____ private messages from strangers.

